Financial Report

Last week the regular attendees of RCL received a letter explaining the financial challenge we as a church family are currently facing. The letter described the shortfall in general offerings through June 30, and the need for both a sacrificial offering—equal sacrifice not equal gifts, each according to what the Lord Lays upon their hearts. The letter also outlined some proposed cuts to payroll, benefits, missions, and benevolence. Next Sunday morning, August 29, we will collect the pledge cards along with a sacrificial offering. Please pray about what God would have you contribute above your normal giving between now and the end of the year. If you are unable to attend next Sunday, you are welcome to pick up a pledge card at the Information Counter this morning and turn it in to the church office this week.
